

Volunteering as leisure: leisure as volunteering

A one-day seminar to be held at the Sheffield University Management School
Wednesday, 4 June 2014

The Programme

- 10:00-10.30 Registration
- 10.30-11.30 Opening plenary
Introduction: Angela Ellis-Paine
Bob Snape: Leisure and volunteering in post-World War I social reconstruction: Are there lessons for today?
- 11.30-13.00 Rewards of volunteering – serious leisure, development and employability.
Naomi Harlett: 'Bringing them with personal interests': Explaining who volunteers from a volunteering as leisure perspective
Aaron McIntosh: Backstage passes: The student volunteer experience
- 13.00-13.45 Lunch
- 13.45-15.15 Volunteers' motivations and expectations vs organisational management
Torsten Schlesinger and Siegfried Nagel: Does the structural context matter?
Analysing individual and structural factors of volunteering in a Swiss sports club
Steven Howlett and Stephen Driver: Plain sailing? Volunteer involvement in boating clubs
- 15.15-16.15 Closing plenary and workshop: volunteering and leisure in a changing society
Geoff Nichols: research questions bridging volunteering and leisure
Discussion: Research questions and research agenda
- 16.15-17.00 Networking and refreshments

Conference fee: £30 for members of VSSN, LSA or VAHS, £60 for non-members, £20 for concessions (members of VSSN, LSA or VAHS but with no institutional support).

To book please visit the web site at:

http://onlineshop.shef.ac.uk/browse/extra_info.asp?compid=1&modid=2&deptid=9&catid=29&prodid=236

The conference has been supported by Sheffield University Management School who have provided the venue and managed the booking.